Take a trip! take a trip! go a - way, — Tir - ed out? tir - ed out? you need play, —
Hur - ry up! hur - ry up! all the time, — On the go, on the go, rain or shine, —

Where to go? where to go? that's the thing! — You don't know, —
Do - ing this, do - ing that, what a life! — There's no end, — where to go, — Ev - 'ry day! ev - 'ry night! same old grind, — or a friend, — Fog - gy days, fog - gy nights, win - ter snows, —

Some-thing new! some-thing new! hard to find, East or West, which is best?
What a chill, what a chill, North wind blows, Take a trip, pack a grip, hard to tell, go a-way, Still I know, Where they love, this quite well! Where they play!

CHORUS If you don't like milk and hon - ey, Where the skies are al-ways sun - ny, If you don't like folks that say "How-de-do?" STAY OUT OF THE SOUTH! If you don't like Dark-ies hum - ming, If you don't like Ban-jos strum - ming, If you don't like brown-eyed beau-ti-ful girls, STAY OUT OF THE SOUTH! You can wan-der, un-der the moon, Mag-i-cal mar-vel-ous skies, And for dream - ing, won - der-ful dreams, It's Par - a - dise. If you dont like palm-trees

If you dont like corn bread

South! South! where they har - mo-nize, South! South! un-der-neath the skies, South! South! gave the blues their birth, South! South! great-est place on earth, Kiss! Kiss! 'till my lips are sore, When they say "e-nough" I'll just cry for more!

Love! Love! love is in the air, You'll find love ev'-ry where. If you
